Director of Faith Formation
Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church
Vancouver, WA

Position Title: Director of Faith Formation

Position Purpose:

Faith Formation encompasses the spectrum of educational programs offered within Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church (BSLC) with a special emphasis on programs for families and youth. The Faith Formation Director is responsible for assessing the educational needs of the congregation, developing a range of program offerings, recruiting and managing education program volunteers, and administering and evaluating the program's effectiveness. The Director will serve as educational program liaison to the church leadership, staff, and congregation.

Qualifications: Bachelor's Degree in Youth and Family Ministries or related field. Demonstrated experience in Lutheran education program management and/or leadership role. Strong oral and written communication skills are required. The ideal candidate will be able to work independently and show initiative in their work. They will also function successfully within a team environment, working with other staff and volunteers. This is a year-round full time position, offering salary and medical benefits.

About BSLC: Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church (BSLC) is located in Vancouver, Washington. BSLC, a member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America Synod, is comprised of over 220 families. There is a history of strong collaboration between paid staff and volunteers from the congregation to manage the church's educational programs.

Vancouver is located in Clark County, Washington, across the Columbia River from Portland, Oregon. Its 160,800 residents enjoy prime recreational opportunities including easy access to ocean beaches, mountains, and urban trails. Vancouver is known for small town charm, an emphasis on sustainable living practices, a strong public school system, and many avenues for citizen engagement in the community.
