

SHALOM PEACE SALAAM

CONCERT AND PROJECT

For Peace in the Holy Land

April 12th - 7 pm • April 13th - 3 pm

Dona Nobis Pacem by Ralph Vaughn Williams

("give us peace" - A choral piece composed as a plea for peace between WWI and WWII, based on poetry of Walt Whitman and sacred texts.)

Chautauqua Community Chorus and chamber orchestra

Emily Nelson, soprano • Travis Abelein, baritone

Elisabeth Southorn, conductor

From the "Tunnel of Oppression, 2007" at Willamette University, an interactive, informational, display on the current state of the Holy Land created by Debbie Southorn, will be available to concertgoers before and after the concert.

A Peace Pole will be dedicated following the concert.

A reception will be hosted by the youth of St. Stephen committed to peacemaking.

A free-will offering will be received to support Friends of Sabeel, a world-wide organization supporting peace in the Holy Land.

This concert supported by St. Stephen Lutheran church, Friends of Sabeel and others.

St. Stephen Lutheran Church • 290 W. Gloucester, Gladstone, OR 97027

For more information: 503.656.8194

THIS WALL
WILL SOON FALL