

#1 Martin Luther: Monk to Reformer

So how is your Inner Monk doing? Augsburg Fortress has created a Reformation 500 resource book for congregations with lots of great stuff in it. One offering in this book is a series of bulletin inserts called, “ABOUT THE LUTHERANS.” You have to buy the book to get the inserts (and I encourage you to do so) but I’m also making inserts of my own for you which are designed to be a complement. Augsburg Fortress is offering you some history. I want to ask about the future!

So, how is your Inner Monk doing?
“Martin Luther: Monk to Reformer” is the title of Augsburg Fortress’ insert – and mine. On their insert they offer these great gems of insight:

- “Not long after he (the young monk, Luther) arrived in Wittenberg, he became incensed by the church...”
- “Luther’s Ninety-Five Theses stirred up a hornet’s nest in the church and began the Reformation ...”
- “For challenging the church and refusing to back down, Luther was called before the Holy Roman emperor, Charles V...”

#1 Martin Luther: Monk to Reformer

So how is your Inner Monk doing? Augsburg Fortress has created a Reformation 500 resource book for congregations with lots of great stuff in it. One offering in this book is a series of bulletin inserts called, “ABOUT THE LUTHERANS.” You have to buy the book to get the inserts (and I encourage you to do so) but I’m also making inserts of my own for you which are designed to be a complement. Augsburg Fortress is offering you some history. I want to ask about the future!

So, how is your Inner Monk doing?
“Martin Luther: Monk to Reformer” is the title of Augsburg Fortress’ insert – and mine. On their insert they offer these great gems of insight:

- “Not long after he (the young monk, Luther) arrived in Wittenberg, he became incensed by the church...”
- “Luther’s Ninety-Five Theses stirred up a hornet’s nest in the church and began the Reformation ...”
- “For challenging the church and refusing to back down, Luther was called before the Holy Roman emperor, Charles V...”

It was Luther's "inner Monk," his sense and practice of God; what he had been taught as a child - and a sense of betrayal that not all was as he had been told - that unleashed the Reformer in him - and oh the cost of letting that Reformer out!

The history of Luther is fascinating. Yet, what good is remembering this history if we don't likewise listen to our inner Monk, and release the Reformer? It is not Martin Luther who makes us Lutheran. It is the Reformer within.

So let me ask you as your bishop: "What is troubling your soul? What is not as it seems? What were you taught that no longer fits? How do we articulate our Christian faith in a new day? What needs to change in the world around us?" We have the coming year to ask these questions.

October 31, 2017 will mark 500 years since "The Reformer" in Luther began to emerge. Oregon arise! This anniversary calls out to the Reformer within you.

You'll find more at www.oregonsynod.org/500

With you on the journey,
Bp. Dave Brauer-Rieke

It was Luther's "inner Monk," his sense and practice of God; what he had been taught as a child - and a sense of betrayal that not all was as he had been told - that unleashed the Reformer in him - and oh the cost of letting that Reformer out!

The history of Luther is fascinating. Yet, what good is remembering this history if we don't likewise listen to our inner Monk, and release the Reformer? It is not Martin Luther who makes us Lutheran. It is the Reformer within.

So let me ask you as your bishop: "What is troubling your soul? What is not as it seems? What were you taught that no longer fits? How do we articulate our Christian faith in a new day? What needs to change in the world around us?" We have the coming year to ask these questions.

October 31, 2017 will mark 500 years since "The Reformer" in Luther began to emerge. Oregon arise! This anniversary calls out to the Reformer within you.

You'll find more at www.oregonsynod.org/500

With you on the journey,
Bp. Dave Brauer-Rieke